DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1: MTO WA MBU CULTURAL TOUR

Start your cultural day trip from Arusha, where your private guide and driver will meet you at your hotel for a comfortable journey to Mto wa Mbu, a vibrant and diverse village located near Lake Manyara National Park. Upon arrival, enjoy a guided village walk, exploring the daily lives, traditions, and customs of over 120 local tribes living together in harmony. Walk through banana and rice plantations, learn traditional farming methods, and taste fresh local produce directly from the farms. Visit local markets filled with colorful crafts, spices, and handmade products, offering excellent opportunities for cultural interaction and photography. Continue with a traditional cooking experience, where you will prepare and enjoy authentic Tanzanian dishes with local hosts. Optional bicycle rides are available for those who wish to explore nearby scenic areas and surrounding communities. In the late afternoon, return to Arusha, concluding a full-day immersive cultural experience rich in learning, authentic interaction, and unforgettable memories.
